

Pacific Museum of Earth virtual tour crossword

This is a “harder” crossword, involving most of the exhibits.

Explore the virtual 3D interactive museum gallery and view or listen the videos, images, text, audio and photographs in the information dots.

Across:

- 1: historical figure and namesake for George our dinosaur
- 4: most of us have one and it takes many mineral types to make one!
- 5: ubc's world-class geochemical research facility.
- 7: excellent specimens from BC online from a Vancouver Island society
- 10: the “breaking ground” exhibit is mostly about this
- 11: the mineral __ display; they come in all colours!
- 12: a variant of quartz once considered very valuable until large deposits were found, especially in South America.
- 13: a common name for actinolite nephrite.
- 14: named by a famous ancient Greek philosopher and once used as a paint pigment.
- 18: common mineral often mistaken for another valuable mineral.
- 19: oldest specimen in the gallery (2 words)
- 20: crystals resulting from precipitation of minerals from carbonate rocks.

Down:

- 2: pme's spherical projection facility
- 3: related to octopus but extinct.
- 4: learn about the “__ cycle” at this impressive specimen and exhibit.
- 6: illustrated with a lava lamp (2 words)
- 8: the unstable mountains exhibit is mostly about these processes
- 9: our name for our lambeosaurus
- 13: uniquely well preserved sedimentary structure
- 15: the tornado title
- 16: dramatic specimen of the second most abundant mineral in earth's continental crust.