

Pacific Museum of Earth virtual tour crossword

Explore the virtual 3D interactive museum gallery and view or listen the videos, images, text, audio and photographs in the information dots.

Across:

- 2: our name for our lambeosaurus
- 4: a dinosaur's bone
- 6: uniquely well preserved sedimentary structure
- 7: dramatic specimen of the second most abundant mineral in earth's continental crust.
- 9: historical figure and namesake for george our dinosaur
- 11: pme's spherical projection facility
- 12: a variant of quartz that was once considered very valuable until large deposits were found especially in South America.

Down:

- 1: common mineral often mistaken for another valuable mineral.
- 3: oldest specimen in the gallery (2 words)
- 5: named by a famous ancient greek philosopher and once used as a paint pigment.
- 6: a common name for actinolite nephrite.
- 8: related to octopus but extinct.
- 10: crystals resulting from precipitation of minerals from carbonate rocks.